

Miss Foster Is Honoree

A beautifully appointed luncheon table decorated the home of Mrs. William Broughton, of 215 Olivera Lane, Wednesday, at the first of a series of parties to be held for Miss Betty Foster, who is planning a late August wedding.

Those who attended the delightful personal shower, besides the honoree, were: Mrs. James S. Eckles, Mrs. Donald Forsblade, Mrs. Robert Archibald, Mrs. Valjean Savage, Mrs. Kenneth Bright, Mrs. Elmer Bonds, Mrs. William McCoid, Mrs. William Merritt and Mrs. Ernest Sides.

Also Mrs. Robert Lindberg, Mrs. Elvin Beard, Mrs. Edward Manthey, Mrs. A. L. Foster, Mrs. Frank Hamilton, Mrs. Adele Thiele, Miss Kathy O'Keefe, Mrs. C. M. Mitchell, Mrs. Claud Smith, Mrs. Genevieve Smith, Mrs. Clarence Kuiper, Mrs. Harold Smith, Mrs. J. Lawrence

Hall, Mrs. J. L. Hall Jr., Mrs. Gwendolyn Morse and Mrs. Vern Foster.

Northwest Folk at Schewepe Home

Mr. and Mrs. C. Arthur Luttrupp of Almira, Wash., are house guests for several days at the Frederic Schewepe home, 182 N. Lima.

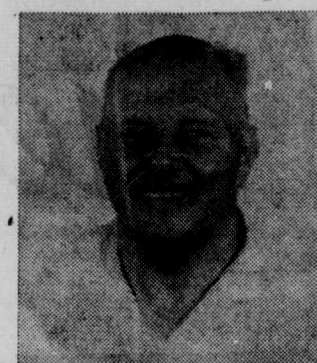

Personnel Chief

Lee R. Joyce has been appointed personnel director of Glendale Federal Savings and Loan Association, it was announced by Charles Wellman, president. Joyce was formerly a member of the personnel staff of the Electro-Data Division of Burroughs Corporation. Mr. and Mrs. Joyce reside in Monrovia.

On Attack Ship

Serving aboard the attack cargo ship USS Seminole, one of the Amphibious Squadron Five, part of the Seventh Fleet in the Far East, and expected in San Diego, is Navy Lt. junior grade, James B. Botz, son of Mrs. H. W. Reid of 658 Mariposa, Sierra Madre.

Is Recalled for Naval Training

MAURICE M. PERKINS, a Reserve lieutenant in the U.S. Navy, and a foreman for Western Electric, has been recalled for training in the Mediterranean Theater.

Mr. Perkins, with his wife and four daughters, Kathleen, Maureen, Connie and Eileen, reside at 560 Brookside Lane, Sierra Madre. During his tour of duty overseas he expects to visit his sister, who is Sister Vincent, in Paris.

Predict Sellout For Community Center's Party

From all indications, a sellout crowd is anticipated for the "Night in Acapulco" scheduled for July 29 in the lovely gardens of the Harvey Mendels, 1035 Hampton Rd., Arcadia, by the Women's Division, Foothill Jewish Community Center. Overall Chairman Mrs. Ben Weissman, at a final meeting in her home, reported that reservations are continuing to pour in for this perfectly planned evening beginning with cocktails at 6:30 p.m., followed by a catered dinner served from 8 p.m. on, with the entertainment provided by Roberto Rios and his group.

Clever decorations devised by Mmes. Harvey Mendel and Michael Gildon will remain a surprise until the affair. Ticket chairman, Mrs. Robert Sencer, assisted by Mmes. Shepard, Weissman, Nathan Jacobs and Ralph Cohen, announced ticket sales are well ahead of last year's successful affair. Reservations may be made with Mmes. Weisman, EL. 6-1910; Sencer, HI. 6-2591, or Charles Lapson, president of the organization, EL. 5-6774.

IT'S A FACT...ABOUT ERMA

WORLD'S FIRST ELECTRONIC BOOKKEEPER

That's if you could take steps as fast as ERMA! You see, ERMA needs only 32 millionths of a second for each step in processing checks. ERMA is Bank of America's revolutionary new Electronic Recording Method of Accounting. Here's how ERMA works: the numbers on each ERMA check are printed with a special magnetic ink containing microscopic specks of iron. When a check goes through ERMA's electronic "reader," each number is magnetized and sends out an electric impulse which is recorded by a computer. Even though a check may be folded or crumpled, ERMA reads it accurately, computes your statement in moments, without error. That's our ERMA—and she works for you only at Bank of America!

ERMA CHECKS HER OWN ARITHMETIC!

ERMA not only prepares your statement in moments, but to make doubly sure there are no errors on it, ERMA checks all her own work afterward. Pioneered and developed by Bank of America, ERMA provides the fastest and most accurate service for handling checks in banking history!

ERMA KNOWS WHO YOU ARE—INSTANTLY!

As part of its ERMA system, Bank of America now gives all regular checking customers free personalized checks—your name and address printed on all your checks at no extra charge. Why not open your account today?

Oklahoma Paper Describes Wedding of Captain Gildart To Cenia B. Billingslea

The Constitution & Morning Press of Lawton, Okla., prints the following concerning the wedding of Miss Cenia Blanche Billingslea to Capt. Charles Rolland Gildart Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rolland Gildart Sr., of 531 Elm, Sierra Madre, which was solemnized Saturday, June 17, at 6:30 p.m. in St. Andrews Episcopal Church in Lawton:

"Now on a wedding trip to New Orleans and other points of interest in Louisiana are Capt. Charles Rolland Gildart Jr. and his bride, the former Miss Cenia Blanche Billingslea. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Billingslea of 1127 Elm. Capt. Gildart's parents are Col. and Mrs. Charles Rolland Gildart Sr., of Sierra Madre, Calif.

Rev. Jerome Lane Wilson, rector, heard the double-ring vows amid a summer setting of seven and nine-branched candelabras and pedestal arrangements of white gladioli and stock.

WHITE AISLE CLOTHS were used down the center aisle and along the chancel rail. On alternating pews were tall cathedral candelabras decorated with garlands of adiantum fern and white satin bows.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. George Glasby, organist; St. Andrews' chancel choir, directed by Mrs. Arno Land, and an a cappella ensemble under direction of Mrs. Bill Arrington. In the procession, the choir sang 'Praise the Lord, the Almighty, the King of Salvation.'

All attendants to the bride were attired in floor-length gowns of pink peau de sole fashioned with empire waistlines and sweeping trains. They wore pearl tiaras and carried crescent bouquets of white gladioli and Swiss lace. Miss Marilyn Billingslea was her sister's maid of honor.

BRIDESMAIDS were Miss Nancy Anne O'Connell, Norman, a niece; Miss Stephanie Specht and Miss Charlotte Specht, cousins; Mrs. George L. Willis III, Shelbyville Ky., a cousin of the bridegroom; Miss Delores Ann Barker, Oklahoma City; Miss Sarah Joe Blackburn, Artesia, N.M.; Miss Louise Rowe, Meers, and Mrs. Alfred W. Pittman and Miss Anne Shepard.

Miss Laura and Miss Jean O'Connell, Norman, nieces of the bride, were junior bridesmaids. Flower girl was Cindy Payson.

Mr. Willis was best man. Ushers were Maj. George Morris, Capt. Pearce E. Nolan, Capt. Walter Phillips, Capt. Patrick M. Brian, Capt. George Germond, Capt. Nelson Thompson, Capt. Stan Eyr, Capt. William Monsor, Capt. Norman Hopkins and Mr. Pittman.

Serving as junior ushers were Mark Randall and Don Laurence Smith, the bride's nephews.

MR. BILLINGSLEA gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a formal bridal gown of silk peau de sole, re-embroidered rosepoint and Alencon lace designed with an empire lace bodice, scooped neckline and long sleeves tapering to points over her wrists.

Appliques of lace enhanced her fitted bodice and the front of the bell-shaped skirt and cathedral train. The back of the dress was detailed with tiny buttons and roses.

Her imported cathedral-length veil was held in place by a pearl-embroidered brow cap. She wore a pearl necklace and earrings, a gift from the bridegroom, and carried a semi-shield bouquet of white phalaenopsis orchids.

The bride's mother was attired in a pink linen sheath and the bridegroom's mother wore a floral dress of pink and gray. Both chose white accessories and wore white gladioli corsages.

A RECEPTION followed in the Polo Club with the bride's parents as hosts. Guests were registered by Miss Rhoda Callahan and Mrs. Milton S. Newberry.

Pedestal bouquets of white gladioli formed a background for the bridal table which was covered with a white organdy cloth accented with garlands of adiantum fern and Frenched chrysanthemums.

The wedding cake was garlanded by ferns and pompoms and flanked by five-branched candelabras.

Reception assistants were Miss Lydia Haag, Norman; Mrs. Fred Melton, Mrs. Patrick Brian, Mrs. George Whitten, Mrs. Buck Kinsey and Mrs. Hal Earley.

Also Mrs. Garnett Radcliff, Shelbyville Ky.; Mrs. Sylvester Howard, Chickasha, Mrs. Fred Fox, Mrs. Arrington, Miss Helen Elliott and Mrs. James Black.

MISS BILLINGSLEA was graduated from Lawton High School and Cameron College and received BA and MA degrees from the University of Oklahoma. At OU she was an honor student and belonged to Alpha Phi social sorority. She has taught at North High School, Torrance, Calif., and Lawton High School, where she served as sponsor of the 1960 class.

Her husband was graduated from Shelbyville Ky. High School and attended the Sullivan Preparatory School, Washington, D.C., before entering the U.S. Military Academy, West Point. He received an MS degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Southern California in June, 1960.

He is stationed at Fort Sill with the Plans and Research division, Guided Missiles Department, USAAMS.

MR. AND MRS. EARLE H. ANDERSON, and sons, Richard and Dan, of 354 N. Lima St., sailed from New York, July 18, on a concert tour through the Nordic and European countries.

The Andersons will fill engagements, performing as a group. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are recording artists, Dan is a violinist and Richard a pianist.

They will be met in Oslo, Norway, by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan (Judith) Rundlett. Judith is an organist, pianist and vocalist, and Nathan is a singer.

The Rundletts were married in Locarno, Switzerland on April 7. The Andersons will also appear in concerts in Great Britain and West Germany. They'll be flying back by jetliner the middle of September when Mr. Anderson will take over the direction of the Congregational Church Choir in Sierra Madre.

THE PAUL ENTERLINES have returned from a vacation in the Midwest where they visited old friends and Paul enjoyed his favorite sport, just fishing.

JOHN R. MCCARTHY, of 151 Vista Circle Dr., editor-author, teacher, and long-time newspaperman in Pennsylvania and California, reports Shirley Sargent has another article in the Sierra Club Bulletin of June.

Shirley is a former student of Mr. McCarthy and has many friends in Sierra Madre and San Gabriel Valley. She lives at her home, "Forestra," in Yosemite during the summer months and is a Pasadena resident the rest of the year.

FRIENDS OF JUDY QUICK and her mother, Mrs. Mary Ellen Quick, will be glad to know Judy had a wonderful time on her trip to Hawaii. Judy was discharged from Casa Colina Rehabilitation Center July 1, where she had been receiving care and therapy for polio this spring. She continued her education while at the Center, but missed so many of her class activities and events that her friends decided to give her a holiday in the Islands. Judy will be an out-patient at the Clinic for some months.

MRS. LEO (BERTA) BLAKEMAN and daughter, Judy, are still in New York visiting her family and having a fine time seeing the sights. This is the first time Berta's family have seen Judy since she was five years old. Judy will celebrate her 11th birthday anniversary this month.

A THANK YOU to all for telephoning any news item to ELgin 5-0003. I'd appreciate items of birthdays, vacations, children's activities, hobbies and feature stories.

Masons and Vets At Services for Major Linville

Funeral services for Philip Bruce Linville, 79, of 505 Alta Vista Dr., Sierra Madre, were conducted Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. by Rose Hills Mortuary at the graveside in Rose Hills Memorial Park, Covina Lodge No. 334, F.&A.M., and Arcadia Post No. 247 of the American Legion officiated.

Mr. Linville, a resident of this area for 19 years, was born in Missouri and died Monday at Inter-Community Hospital in Covina.

He is survived by two daughters, Bertha L. McIntyre of Covina; Mary L. Simpson of El Monte; a son, Charles B. Linville of Covina; two sisters, Lorie Simpson of San Diego; Mary Fisher of Missouri; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mr. Linville served as a major in the U.S. Army during World War I.

Economy is a subject that often goes on the talking block, but that is about as far as it goes.

Year's Trip Plan of Mrs. D. Webster

Mrs. Doris Bayard Webster of 125 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., with a Pasadena friend, leaves Aug. 20 on a year-long trip covering much of Asia, Africa and Europe.

Mrs. Webster, widely known as a kindergarten teacher for 35 years and who for 18 years has taught in Glendale, is taking a year's sabbatical so as to make the trip.

It is expected that her husband, W. Alden Webster, will join the two women in Europe next year.

TOKYO WILL be the first stop with a month to be spent there and elsewhere in Japan. Mrs. Webster's Far Eastern itinerary includes Hong Kong, Singapore and the Malayan Peninsula. From India she will go to South Africa, the Holy Lands, the Sudan, and if permission is granted to Moscow.

After that comes Europe and the trip back to the United States.

In Rochester, N.Y., Mrs. Webster will visit with their daughter, Mrs. Nancy Webster Allemand, whose husband, a graduate from the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia, is engaged in internship at the University of Rochester Hospital. That completed, he will have a two-year residency at the Children's Hospital in Philadelphia.

MRS. WEBSTER brought to the News office a copy of the Flower Festival Supplement of the SIERRA MADRE NEWS published on April 18, 1912, and which, printed on heavy glazed paper, affords a pictorial and news insight into the Sierra Madre of that pre-World War I period, especially the many beautiful homes there then.

She also brought with her a copy of "Vistas of Sierra Madre," published in 1908 by the Sierra Madre Board of Trade, whose officers were J. W. Keys, president; A. S. Mead, vice president; M. H. Bridle, secretary, and W. S. Andrews, treasurer. Directors were C. W. Jones, J. J. Graham, C. S. Kersting and Messrs. Keys, Andrews, Mead and Bridle.

Vange Schulten Hobnobbing With British Nobility

Miss Vange Schulten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexis J. Schulten of 735 Canyon Crest Dr., Sierra Madre, is spending the summer in Europe.

The highlight of the trip thus far has been a visit with an old friend of Mrs. Schulten's, the Dowager Lady Cunliffe, widow of the late Lord Cunliffe, former governor of the Bank of England. A draft outline of the item might go somewhat as follows:

"Miss Evangeline Schulten, daughter of the Alexis J. Schultens of Canyon Crest Dr., Sierra Madre, has been spending the summer in Europe.

While in England in early June, she was entertained at a dinner party given by the Dowager Lady Cunliffe at her flat in London. She is presently on a four-week tour of the Continent and, upon her return to England, will be the house guest of Sir William and Lady Beale at their country home in Essex for several weeks.

Miss Schulten is a recent graduate of USC where she was a member of Mortar Board and Amazons, and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. She plans to return to the University in September to complete her studies for a Master's Degree in International Relations."

Bevingtons Will Visit Northwest

City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington and Mrs. Bevington were scheduled to leave today for a two-week vacation, motorwise, in the Pacific Northwest and Canadian points.

NAMED CADET OF MONTH

Aviation Cadet Theodore Martin, son of Mrs. Dorothy Roberts of 145 E. Grand View Ave., Sierra Madre, was recently named Cadet of the Month at Harting Air Force Base, Texas.

Award Night At Toy Loan On Monday

By Elena Brown

"Tender, Loving Care" of the toys borrowed from Toy Loan will be rewarded on Monday night, July 31, when the boys and girls who are eligible will receive their awards.

At 7:30 o'clock, at the Park House, James Abernethy, vice president of the Community Chest, will present dolls for adoption to the girls and honor gifts to the boys who have earned ten honor points for good care and prompt return of toys borrowed from Toy Loan, during the past six months.

The girls receive their dolls on "probation" and must check in every two weeks in a simulated adoption procedure. At the end of six weeks, they may keep the dolls and will receive "adoption papers," if they have shown good care of their gift dolls.

IN CHARGE of the ceremonies are the new Civic Club Toy Loan chairman, Mrs. Dean Stoddard, and Toyarian, Mrs. Helen Peterson. Assisting as hostesses will be Civic Club members Mrs. John Stich, Mrs. Richard Keppler and Mrs. David Harris.

Special guests for the evening will be Mrs. Howard Fling, director of Toy Loan in Los Angeles County, and Mrs. Mary Black, assistant director.

Refreshments will be served to the children participants and their parents and to all other children in the community who are interested in attending the ceremonies.

PARADOX

Many a man worries about his health one minute, and passes a car on a curve at 90-some miles an hour the next.

'Bud' Green Is Engaged

A dinner party for family and friends occasioned announcement of the engagement of Miss Carol Lee Pearcy to Burton (Bud) Robert Green, Pasadena City College Student Body president, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Green of 75 N. Lima, Sierra Madre.

The bride-elect is the daughter of the Carl H. Pearcy of N. Craig Ave., Pasadena, a Muir graduate, and is now transferring to UC Santa Barbara campus. Her fiancé, a PHS graduate, enters LA State this fall. No wedding date has been set.

Ranch Roundup

By Joyce Wenger
SYcamore 8-4777

Hope you like the NEW LOOK! A devastating new hair-do has been known to work wonders for some gals. I'd like to think this column's face-lifting will do as much for me!

Let me add, hopefully, that readers who phone me with news items give me the greatest lift!

I was SO PLEASED when a teenage boy called me recently about a party . . . I would like to hear more about what the young crowd are planning and doing!

POPULAR MR. ED, television's talking horse, has retired to his new home at nearby Eaton Canyon Stables. Jo Neugebauer (Mrs. Richard), of 1575 Riveria Drive, purchased this talented trick horse to make children happy, and will show him at horse shows and charity benefits.

First, however, Jo must master her lessons in putting the perfection trained Palomino quarterhorse through his paces. While his new owner studies her cues, Mr. Ed enjoys celebrity attention from his many visiting young fans. Wonder if there's a STAR on his stable door?

HASTINGS RANCH NEEDLEWORK GUILD will gather for swimming and dessert at 11 o'clock this morning at Jo Caffee's home, 1240 Coronet. Mary Kemp, Beverly Sielen and Maggie Tompkins will serve as hostesses.

MRS. ADAH FOX was honored at a surprise birthday anniversary party last Thursday given by her daughter, Mrs. Edward Thomas. Guests included Mmes. Edna Haight, Alice Vensel, Martha Seth, Eleanor Lowry, Marie Davidson, Jessie Hickock, Mabel Arthur, Enelia Barnard, Ione Wix, Alzina Stoner and Mrs. Blaine.

TWO RANCH FAMILIES returned from travels in the East last week. Dr. and Mrs. John Venable, daughter Rita, and her friend from Tulsa, Maryjane Geiger, had a month-long tour of the eastern seaboard. Incidentally, they were aboard a boat under the falls, when the man rode over Niagara Falls in a steel ball.

JANE AND JOHN MORRIS, with Judy and John, made an interesting motor trip to the upper Michigan Peninsula, Mackinac Island, Mt. Rushmore and Yellowstone.

CECIL W. DAVIS combined a medical trip to the Mayo Clinic with an extensive Canadian tour. He stopped off for a visit with his mother in Winnipeg, witnessed the famous Calgary stampede, toured Lake Louise, Banff, and Vancouver.

HASTY HENS plan a gay evening with their husbands Saturday night at Lari and Jack Osborn's Shadow Grove home. Lenna Jennings and her party committee—Louise Day, Nita Bacon, Jean Stivers and Pat Gregory—have planned a fun-filled evening of dinner, swimming, dancing—and volleyball! Here's an interesting twist: spouses of the above mentioned Hasty Hens will be the cleanup committee!

AT DR. AND MRS. ELMER MORTON'S home there is much jubilation and exciting plans are in the making for a family trip to Akron, Ohio, where 14-year-old Foss will compete in the National Shop Box Derby Aug. 20.

Last Saturday, Foss defeated 130 entrants in the Greater Los Angeles Derby, driving a flashy red racer he built himself. His mother tells me he's still numb, but he has a beautiful trophy to remind him of his victory!

Foss was graduated from Ascension last month, and is an Eagle Scout in Explorer Post 376 of Sierra Madre.

There will be 150 boys competing at Akron for high stakes, $15,000 in college scholarships. Good luck, Foss!

FLO AND ED BARNES and youngsters Diane, Steven and Tom will be greatly missed by their many friends in the Ranch. They moved to Ojai last Tuesday, where they are building a home on a lovely acre overlooking the Ojai Country Club, and where, said Flo, "we look forward to entertaining Ranch friends!"

Before their departure, Flo was honored at a farewell luncheon given by Mrs. Blair Hyde. And last Saturday evening Marguerite and John Horn honored the Barnes at a patio dinner. Guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Gordon Hyde, Blair Hyde, Lew Page, John Hedricks, Joe Cummins, Phil Shepherd and David Zinsmeyer.

SOUNDING OFF: The summer swim instruction program offered at nearby PHS is much appreciated by most of us. However, the way in which portions of last week's Swim Carnival were conducted left much to be desired. Several youngsters (whose mothers had received notes asking them to be in the show) were left sitting on the bench when their names did not appear on the "list" as the events were called up.

Can't think of anything more heartbreaking for a youngster! There was also audible questioning by spectators as to the third and fourth place winners of an event as announced. On that one, it appeared too many judges added up to confusion. It is respectfully hoped such errors will not be repeated at future events.

SWIM PARTY and buffet dinner were given Sunday, July 16, by Court Queen of the Rosary 1653, Catholic Daughters of America, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Walshe, 505 N. Michillinda Ave. The event was a benefit for Camp Teresita Pines, a Catholic Girls camp at Wrightwood.

Members attending were Messrs. and Mmes. J. G. Albright, Richard Barron, Joseph Delgatto, Harry Dierdorf, William Dillon, Ray Franklin, Paul Gougou, George Pieri, Raymond Rancourt, Paul Schuergens, Joseph Siefke, James Walshe, Dan Wiebe.

Also Mmes. Pete Barbata, Lillian Biasotti, Thomas Dinny, Peter Geissler, William Greene, Harold Hulbert, C. A. Keane, Jessie Messe, Francis Powers, Marian Shipley, J. J. Sloan, Catherine Summers and Dr. Martha Kohl.

Guests present were Mrs. Margaret Rosaurer from Court Hollywood, Mrs. A. L. Bateman from San Gabriel, district deputy of the court. Also Messrs. and Mmes. Vincent Pieri, Harvey Becker and Anthony DePasco.

IT WAS "ALL ABOARD for the Hollywood Bowl!" last Friday evening for many Villa families. Pictured here are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest P. Maurin Jr. and their young sons, Debbie, Sherry and Paul. Standing in the door, Robert Gee, far right Mrs. Gee and grandson Robbie.

When you live in the city it is impossible to raise children by yourselves. They must learn to respect the rules and regulations you impose as well as understand those of their friends and contemporaries. There has to be a mutual understanding between neighbors, plus a deep appreciation of their right to privacy. All this and more has been attained in these Villa and Kinneloa Hills, in addition to an abundant amount of warmth and friendship. As a result every now and then there are large neighbor-gatherings, both with and without the children. Last weekend seemed to be the week for several.

THE KINNELOA MESA Association had its annual swimming and barbecue party last Saturday from mid-afternoon on. The group which comprises more than 100 of the local residents, met at the swimming pools of the Albert A. Richards, the Frank D. Ferisses and the Richard Davidsons, all on Meyerloa Lane, which was blocked off from traffic. In the evening they all gathered round for a barbecue with plenty of tap beer for the adults and soda pop for the children.

There were movies arranged for the younger set and dancing and visiting for the adults. Mrs. Richard Davidson, Mrs. Clarence Kanak and Mrs. Albert Richards were in charge of all of the arrangements this year.

THE VILLA BUS to the Hollywood Bowl took off last Friday night with a load of happy people for Family Night at the circus. We chartered our own bus and loaded it with picnic lunches, children and parents for an evening long to be remembered.

The group included Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lackey, Mr. and Mrs. George Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. John Fricke, Mr. and Mrs. George Wenger, Mrs. Joseph Mangano, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Scott, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gee, Mr. and Mrs. Alkman Armstrong, Dr. and Mrs. R. Philip Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Cleto Dorsey, Mrs. Joseph Philipson and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest P. Maurin, and 39 children of the families.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN HEDRICK of Villa Mesa recently entertained at a neighborhood cocktail and supper party.

Those invited were Messrs.

THE VILLA GUILD of the Rosemary Cottage got together last weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Halperin for a pot-luck barbecue and swimming party.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Norman White, Mrs. Joseph Mangano, Mr. and Mrs. Don Jaxheimer, Mr. and Mrs. George Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goldsworthy, Mr. and Mrs. David Elmer, Mr. and Mrs. George Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Cleto Dorsey and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Matloff.

WORD COMES in from the University of Redlands that Craig Lockhard served as a news writer on the University of Redlands student newspaper which won an "All-American" award for 1960-61. "Redlands Bulldog" was the only four-year college newspaper in Southern California to win top honors in the Associated Collegiate Press national competition.

Not only that, it was the fifth consecutive time that the "Bulldog" has been rated "All-American."

Pretty good average, I'd say, when you realize they were competing with more than 350 four-year colleges in categories ranging from daily to monthly publications.

Craig is the son of Mrs. Doris Lockard of Barhite.

DR. AND MRS. LINCOLN WILSON have been entertaining a dear friend, Mrs. Robert Holm, and her two children, Billy and Pamela, from Hastings, Neb. They took Billy albacore fishing and with beginner's luck he landed three off the Newport Beach coast. Think of the fish story he'll tell his friends.

Four Different Workshops Will Offer Summertime Displays at Creative Arts

Sponsors for the Creative Arts Group will be guests of honor at the informal open house being held at the adobe at 37 E. Montecito in Sierra Madre, Thursday evening, July 27, at 7:45 o'clock.

The Sponsors is being organized to furnish art scholarship funds so that more children as well as adults may take part in the activities of this unique group which stresses the creative approach in many different kinds of art workshops.

Within the adobe the work of four different art workshops will be on display, showing the results produced by children from 5 years of age on up through the teens.

These workshops have been meeting twice weekly this summer, with the exception of one workshop which will run through to the middle of September, meeting once a week. A wide variety of media and techniques are included in the exhibit to which the following have contributed:

ALSO from Mary Wallace's group: Anne Bromley, Steve Sanford, Kathy Curry, Lynn Jourigan, Allison Snow, Curtis Frey, Lynnie Wallace, Jan Gaffey, John Morse, Jim Morse, Mike Tidwell; and from Gwendolyn Davies' group: Lucy Burr, Virginia Good, Stuart Roach, Mary Holman, Joseph Dauben, Chris Campion, Susan Hawkins, Jeff Hawkins, Kim Hawkins, Kenric Hammond, Holly Burton, Mary Lee Stewart, Donna Williams.

THE GUITAR and folk-singing workshop will be having their regular meeting. Members of this group are: Tim Hollingshead, Julie Moran, Bob Busby, Sylvia Teem, Jan Schneidewind, Nancy Yoder, Scott Brown, Jean de la Rosa, Vincent Shearer, Teri Purmort, Cathy Wallace, Mary Wallace, Terri McKee, Bob Brose, Mary Glenn, Carol More, James McCoy, Kathy Brown, Bettina Raphael, Roberta Goldberg, Isabelle Goldsmith, Barbara McBane.

OUT IN THE PATIO a simple variation of "Peter and the Wolf" will be presented by the creative dance group which is made up of boys and girls 5 to 8 years old.

The familiar folk tale will be interpreted in a child-like manner with costumes, masks and sets made by the children who participate.

YCC Planning Beach Party

The Sierra Madre Youth Coordinating Council, under supervision of the city, is planning a beach trip to be held on Aug. 26. Necessary details will be printed in the following weeks as the plans develop.

Teen night at the swimming pool will be extended to 11 o'clock on Tuesday, Aug. 8. Along with the regular swimming there also will be dancing and ping-pong.

Cathy Brown has become the new treasurer for the YCC, replacing Reg Nations, who has moved away. Janet White has been appointed dance chairman; Bruce Rowe, membership chairman; Steve Luder, recreation chairman, and Jerri Rowe, publicity editor, filling out the vacant offices for the coming year.

Raid Siren Test On This Friday

Last Friday of each month is Air Raid Siren Test. The test will be held this Friday, July 28, at 10 a.m. The Sierra Madre office of Civil Defense states the test signals will be run as follows: The alert signal—Steady blast of three to five minutes duration (one minute during test).

The take cover signal—wailing tone or series of short blasts of three minutes duration (one minute during test).

DePasco Home Locale of Party Honoring Cathy

As has been the custom for years, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony P. (Lillian) DePasco were hosts at their home at 205 N. Sunnyside honoring the birthday anniversary of their daughter, Cathy Maria, who this time observed her 12th year.

The more than 20 girls gathered at the DePasco home for fun games of basketball, table tennis and other amusements were each attired in muumuus, and the Hawaiian motif was carried out further with leis for each young guest and appropriate food.

The girls attending, in addition to Cathy, were Diann Ames, Susan Ames, Nicole Bois, Nancy Comerford, Kathy Formanack, Debra Hartenraft, Alice Mong, Jackie Marshall, Mary Matkovich, Christina Nelson, Holly Nuetzel, Parme Kay Planelch, Susan Ripple, Diana Smith, Mary Lynn Smith and Susan Watson.

Five cousins of the young hostess came from Oxnard for the party. They were Claire, Francia, Buddy, Hilda and Heida Insalata.

DOUBLE-TAKE

Take time to be friendly—it will bring happiness to you and many other people.

Griffins Return From Long Tour

Carl L. Griffin of 245 Sturtevant, senior partner of the Griffin & Sons Lumber Company at 38 E. Montecito, and his wife, Mrs. Annabel Griffin, have returned from a five-week motor tour of 15 Midwestern and Southern states.

Among others, the Griffins visited Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky, where at Lexington they had an excellent closeup of the Blue Grass country horse racing stock farms; Louisiana, Mississippi, Georgia, and South and North Carolina.

Home Industry Issue Up . . .

Petz Will Chairman Planning Commission

Harold G. Petz was elected chairman of the Sierra Madre Planning Commission at its monthly meeting last Thursday night in City Council Chambers. Frank R. Parks, chairman for the past year, was chosen as vice chairman. Two new members were inducted—Mrs. Clark T. (Marrie) Casey and Dr. Daniel L. D'Arcy.

Home industry and Toyon Rd. were the principal features before the commission.

The home industry was sparked some weeks ago by W. Bonita St. property owners who objected to Mayor W. Webster Vannier's planned sale of his holdings at 131 W. Bonita to Louis Sandoz of Duarte, who manufactures miniature automobile models for General Motors.

SUBSEQUENTLY, Mayor Vannier withdrew the property from sale, but the question of home industry continues to perplex the Planning Commission.

It was pointed out that there was no general provision governing such in the city code, and Planning Commission members plan to tour the city to obtain first-hand information for this needed code provision.

The commission formally approved the map of Prescott Builders of Pasadena for the Toyon Rd. subdivision, practically ending the more than 18-month battle waged successfully by property owners of this area, and which, in two instances, took the fight into the courts.

FOLLOWING the last court decision won by the property owners and the city, Prescott Builders agreed to reduce the number of lots to 15, thus conforming to the hillside zone ordinance, to provide a 340-foot paved roadway entrance to the subdivision and, at the insistence of City Atty Charles R. Martin, to dedicate this as a public street.

Prescott Builders continued to deal with the property owners for acquisition of lots needed for the roadway to the subdivision. The Planning Commission discovered that mortuaries are not covered by zone requirements. A public hearing was ordered preliminarily to amending the building code in this respect.

Tuesday Club Films Depict Red Dangers

The Tuesday Morning Study Club today offers the last of a two-day "Visual Aid" seminar at McKinley High School Auditorium, S Oak Knoll Ave. at Del Mar, Pasadena, at which films teaching the American concept of government are offered and to which the general public is invited. In these films the dangers of Communism and its teachings are emphasized.

Beginning at 9:45 a.m. and extending through 3:10 p.m., today's offerings include "Make Mine Freedom," produced by the National Education Program; "American Adventure Series," and a speech by Dr. William S. Teague, vice president of Pepperdine College, which will follow presentation of the new film, "Communist Accent on Youth," produced by the college.

"Challenge to America," sponsored by the Navy League of the United States, will conclude the program. There will be an hour out at noon for lunch.

Anybody Missing Big White Rabbit?

Mebbe some sorrowful youngster is mourning loss of a large, white pet rabbit.

If so, he or she should contact Mrs. John S. Angus of 405 N. Canon, Sierra Madre, for this particular bunny is making her garden its habitat—for the present.

The rabbit is foraging there, but at the same time is wary of capture. Mrs. Angus thinks its owner might be able to capture it and return it home. Mrs. Angus' phone number is ELgin 5-7837.

Swim Team Wins

THE HIGHEST scoring Sierra Madre diver of the day was Buddy Nations who placed second in the boys 14- to 16-year-old division, while Jim Evanson scored third in the same age group.

Diana Brown placed first in the senior girls competition while Penny Ward and Lauren Davidson placed first and second, respectively, in the girls 13 and under age group. George Matakovich placed first in the younger boys division.

Best times turned in for the meet came from two of the Sierra Madre girls, Melba Griffin and Laurie Zurn. Melba took first in the girls 13-year-old division for the 50-yard butterfly in an excellent time of 34.58, while Laurie Zurn won the girls 16-year-old backstroke in a good 38.08.

Riley Keith also swam a good 50-yard breast stroke in 39.2, while Keith Casenhiser swam the 50-yard butterfly for 12-year-old boys in an excellent 44.4s.

OTHER POINT winners for Sierra Madre were: Boys 7 and 8—Tom Nickoloff, first 25-yard breast, first 25-yard back; Paul Huber, third 25-yard free, third 25-yard back; girls 9 and 10—Anette McKee, first 50-yard free, second 50-yard back; Karen Williams, fourth 50-yard free; boys 9 and 10—Chris Cholewiak, second 50-yard back, third 50-yard free; Jamie Azdair, second 50-yard free; Greg Bealer, first 50-yard butterfly.

Girls 11 and 12—Margaret Keith, second 50-yard breast, first 50-yard free; boys 11 and 12—John Nickoloff, first 50-yard back, first 50-yard free; Randy Drea, third 50-yard free; Jack Koenig, second 50-yard back; Keith Casenhiser, first 50-yard butterfly; girls 13 and 14—Lauren Davidson, first 50-yard breast, first 100-yard free; Melba Griffin, first 50-yard butterfly; Christine Hawley, first 50-yard breast, second 50-yard back.

BOYS 13 AND 14—Riley Keith, third 50-yard butterfly, third 50-yard breast; Dick Hammers, second 50-yard back; girls 15 and 16—Laurie Zurn, first 50-yard back; Stef Turner, third 100-yard free; boys 15 and 16—Bill Keith, first 50-yard breast, second 100-yard free; Roger Keith, second 50-yard butterfly; Abbe Keith, third, 50-yard back; Terry Davidson, second 50-yard back.

Next meet will be on Thursday, Aug. 3, at 5 p.m. This will be the last of the home meets to be held at the Sierra Madre pool.

The schedule includes the El Monte Invitational on Aug. 5, and the last league meet of the season to be held Thursday, Aug. 10, at the Bainbridge Club, Covina. League finals will be held on Saturday, Aug. 12, at La Puente High School.

by rejecting not only the McNulty proposal but the Planning Commission approval of the subdivision as well.

Now the subdividers must start all over again, and also attempt to meet conditions, especially that of flood drainage, objected to by the property owners.

Similarly, following remarks by Dr. Fernando Teliz, W. Alegria property owners in the N. Sunnyside sector were given 60 days in which to marshal up evidence against Council's proposed abandonment of a portion of W. Alegria there, mainly because of drainage problems.

COUNCIL adopted three resolutions which can lead to condemnation proceedings in the Suffolk St. extension impasse.

One concerns the Perlot, Keating, Rasmussen and other properties from S. Baldwin through to S. Hermosa, including the Hansen property. The second deems the immediate possession of these properties for street purposes is legal, and the third provides condemnation proceedings over a period of time.

Council approved the map for the Toyon Rd. subdivision by the Prescott Builders of Pasadena. Now the principal point needing smoothing out in this long-mooted battle by the property owners is for the company's acquisition of an access road. Negotiation for this with the property owners is now under way.

Eaton Pro Named

The Board of Supervisors has confirmed the appointment of E. E. (Hoot) Whitaker of Pasadena as golf pro at the Eaton Canyon Course, opening this fall. At one time Whitaker was associated with Paul Runyan at Annandale and with Guy Bellitt at the former driving range at Victory Park.

flood control employee, was working in the area, heard their cries and radioed to the Arcadia Police Department who called their emergency firemen and the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team.

Arriving at the scene at 2:40 p.m., the men knelt at a glance that Richard's condition was extremely grave. They placed the unconscious boy in a litter and rushed from the canyon to the Arcadia Methodist Hospital. He was later transferred to the Los Angeles County Hospital in critical condition.

ON THE WAY down the canyon, the men carrying the litter had a narrow brush with a rattlesnake which Capt. Fred La Lone quickly disposed of. It had 11 rattles.

Miner Harkness, Bill Wark and Ranger Ralph Shagraw returned to the canyon to rescue the dog, still cowering in a little cove high on the cliffside.

In a two-hour operation the men climbed the back side of the hill and lowered Miner Harkness 130 feet down the cliff to reach the stranded "Skipper."

AT FIRST Miner's efforts were somewhat hampered by the dog's seemingly unfriendly attitude toward strange adults, but after much coaxing and soft talk amid the shouts of encouragement from Wark and Shagraw, the dangling Miner was able to convince the dog of his good intentions.

He tied the dog onto a rope which was lowered to him and first the dog and then Miner were hoisted up to safety.

Nixon and Governorship

It would be most unwise for former Vice President Richard M. Nixon to run for Governor of California. Especially so if he plans to again seek the Republican Presidential nomination in 1964.
First, he would face a contest in the primary, for there are others who covet the gubernatorial nomination, notably Mayor Christopher of San Francisco, Joe Snell, Republican minority leader in the Assembly at Sacramento, and a Southlander; former Lt. Governor "Butch" Powers whose hat already is in the ring; Sheriff Pitchess of Los Angeles County, Supervisor Frank G. Bonelli, and finally, former Governor Goodwin J. Knight, who although he has made no announcement as to his political future, has a better claim on the nomination than any of the others.
Secondly, if Nixon were elected, he would face a continuously bad time with a numerically strong Democratic Legislature.
Thirdly, Nixon by being elected Governor could not hope to balance the obvious triumph that Governor Nelson Rockefeller is going to achieve in New York State.
Summed up, Nixon as Governor could encounter road-blocks which would materially injure his chances of landing the 1964 Presidential nomination.

IT WOULD BE better for him, by far, to maintain his standing as the principal Republican leader-statesman of the country rather than risk this through being Governor of California.
Turning to gubernatorial strengths, statistics reveal that former Governor Knight can pull at least 32 per cent of the vasty preponderant Democratic vote in California and that this margin is necessary to insure election for a Republican candidate.
The same is true of votes from the minorities, notably the Negro vote. When he ran for his first full term as Governor in 1954, Knight drew 43.3 per cent of the Negro vote in Los Angeles, contrasted to the 25 per cent who balloted for Senator Tom Kuchel, also a Republican.
By a smaller margin, Knight also did relatively well in the Mexican-American and Jewish communities, running ahead of the Republican ticket in these predominantly Democratic territories.

EVEN in the deplorable Republican debacle of 1958, Knight, then perforce seeking a U.S. senatorial seat, made a respectable showing among these minorities in the primaries. Some 31 per cent of the Negro Democrats crossed party lines to vote for him, whereas only 10.4 per cent went for Senator William Knowland who had—unfortunately and stubbornly—switched places on the Republican ticket with Knight and thus insured statewide defeat for the Republicans.

The stoutly persistent Democrats in the Mexican-American area gave 23.7 per cent to Knight (8.2 per cent to Knowland); and Knight's Democratic-Jewish vote shows 20.9 per cent for Knight and 7.4 per cent for Knowland.
The Republicans owe Knight a debt, one that its leaders should recognize, and so should Nixon. But Knight should not be nominated on the strength of that debt alone. He should be nominated because he was a good Governor, not only for the Republicans, but for the Democrats as well.

Right at the moment, he is happy as a private citizen, TV commentator and husband of lovely—and loyal—Virginia Knight. But we have a hunch he could be drafted, and he might well be.

Governor Brown Again Promotes Welfare State

Governor Edmund G. Brown has taken further lengthy steps toward converting California into a true welfare state in his signing of a batch of bills calling upon producers of business, industry and agriculture to contribute millions of dollars more than they have in the past toward increasing the increments of those who do not produce, but who live upon the taxpayers.

For instance, the Governor decided to take $6,600,000 more a year out of the pockets of the taxpayers and donate this amount to California's Civil Service hierarchy every year. The total amount, of course, will increase annually, along with the increase in the total number of state employees, as the bill calls for a donation of $5 each month from the state's general fund for health insurance for each employee.

ALL OF WHICH means the producers of California will have to increase production to cover the additional donations, or siphon off the money from either profits, research or expansion.

And at the same time, no additional benefits have been given to the producers, many of whom find it difficult to even carry any health insurance at all, especially in the small business field where discrimination in health insurance rates precludes policies.

Thus, the Civil Service circle, which already has benefits and privileges above and beyond the reach of the ordinary citizen who is footing the bill, gets even more from a vote-seeking Legislature and Governor.

Some of these benefits, denied to a lot of people whose shoulders are bowed under the governmental tax load, are three weeks' vacation with pay, plus 12 days of sick leave annually with pay; a comparatively liberal retirement program which can start at age 55; less work than is required in private industry and for some, the privilege of driving cars to and from work on the taxpayers' money. And let's not forget the most liberal system of state holidays in existence.

ALONG WITH all this, the Governor has indicated there will be another salary increase for state employees in the next budget.

Continuing the welfare program, the Governor increased old-age pensions at the rate of $5 a month aid to the blind, $5 a month and also grants to the old-agers and blind with special needs.

While taxes increase on the property of the people who produce, the Governor created a 15-member Housing Com-

New State Agencies Burden Taxpayers

By Henry C. MacArthur
(Capitol News Service—Special to the Sierra Madre News)

SACRAMENTO—One reason California's cost of government is more than two and a half billion dollars a year, and scheduled to go higher next year, is the fact that each succeeding Legislature creates new state agencies, without bothering to eliminate old and useless agencies prior Legislatures have created.

The result is a continuing expansion of government, draining more and more money from the taxpayers' pockets, and from California businesses striving to create wealth, rather than dissipate it on fat bureaucracy.

The 1961 Legislature created nearly 20 new state agencies. Some of these, even though they may increase operating costs of government, may in the long run result in some savings for the taxpayers, such as the beginning of the state's reorganization plan submitted by Governor Edmund G. Brown. It is yet too early to tell.

IT IS EXTREMELY difficult to separate the wheat from the chaff in appraising the value of newly created agencies. From one viewpoint, most of them are desirable insofar as desirability of having certain work done and certain researches made.

But, the question is whether California taxpayers can afford the continuing desirability of performing work at taxpayers' expense which the populace can do without.

For instance, in the Governor's budget, there is $100,000 for a commission to study neurologically handicapped children in Los Angeles, San Mateo, Contra Costa and Orange Counties.

What happens after the study is completed? The commission undoubtedly will render a report to the Legislature recommending bigger and better program for neurologically handicapped children in these counties at higher cost to the educational program, now about a billion a year, and recommend that the studies be continued in other counties.

And to what result? Anything a good spanking and some old-fashioned discipline can't cure? Studies of this nature probably should start with the educational system itself, and the influences in the home that cause neurotic youngsters.

HERE'S ANOTHER one, a State Advisory Commission on Indian Affairs for $25,000. Probably as long as there are Indians, some government agency, state or Federal, will be on hand to coddle them, at taxpayers' expense.

So it boils down to the fact it isn't the original investment that counts, it's the upkeep.

A sample is the Fair Employment Practices Commission, created in 1959 whose budget has grown this year to $321,217, the taxpayers spending this much for additional government harassment of business. The Economic Development Agency budget has grown to $233,240 and the Consumer Council to $92,232.

Individually, the new agencies and continuing agencies do not add up to a large amount. But lump them all together, and see what the taxpayer is up against, with practically no recourse for cutting down government expenses.

Bowles Flareup Proves Disturbing

By Robert G. Spiwack
WASHINGTON.

POSTSCRIPT TO THE BOWLES CASE — President Kennedy proved shrewder than some of his associates in the brief, but unhappy, flareup over Chester Bowles' future in the new Administration.

While they were still sharpening their knives and preparing for a long war the President beat a hasty retreat. He expressed complete confidence in his undersecretary of state and denied he ever asked for his resignation.

The President, of course, reserved the right to shift any of his associates into posts where their talents were best employed. But he denied that any immediate changes were contemplated. It was a face-saving gesture for all parties concerned, but it did not go to the heart of the matter.

The issue is not whether Chester Bowles is, or is not, a good "administrator." He was not brought into the Kennedy camp because he had unusual talents as a housekeeper. He is a symbol. In the pre-Los Angeles phase of the campaign his presence was supposed to woo away followers of Adlai Stevenson and convince the doubters that the Kennedyites were genuinely liberal. After the election he was named No. 2 man in the State Department, when Stevenson was bypassed as secretary of state. It was hoped this would persuade these same people that the new Administration would welcome men of imagination, who were stimulating, and devoid of stodginess.

Is this the wrong slot for that kind of man? It may be, but that's where the President put him.

OTHER ASPECTS OF THE CASE — There are other aspects to the case that are even more disturbing.

The President, we were told by Bob Kennedy and others, would be his "own secretary of state" if he won the election. Robert said this at a press conference in the offices of the Democratic Advisory Council. Lesser figures in the Administration have echoed the comment from time to time.

This sounds like a good idea when you hear it for the first time, but just what does it mean?

Does it mean that the secretary of state and the undersecretary are mere figureheads? Does it mean the President will supersede them in matters of policy making? Does it mean they will only be consulted when it suits the anonymous advisers at the White House?

Does it mean they are merely to give rubber stamp approval to what someone else proposes?

PART OF THE ANSWER, I suppose, depends on what the secretary and undersecretary come up with in the realm of new ideas. Mr. Rusk has been proceeding cautiously; Mr. Bowles, we are told, has been a bit more daring. Actually we do not know what ideas either man has proposed. It is quite proper, up to a point, that new ideas should get kicked around by the inner circle. When a decision is reached, presumably, it is made public and everyone gets behind it.

Has Chester Bowles violated this rule in any way?

If he has no one has been told how and when.

V. T. Pratt's Return From Tour Carrying Them to Picturesque Alaskan Spots

Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Pratt of 406 Pleasant Hill Lane, Sierra Madre, returned recently from a tour of Alaska, after having traveled via Pan American World Airlines from Seattle to Fairbanks and Wien Alaska Airlines from Fairbanks to Barrow on the Arctic Sea.

Mr. Pratt writes the following:

Barrow, Alaska, is 300 miles north of the Arctic Circle and 1,250 miles from the North Pole, it was originally an Eskimo village and is the farthest village or place of habitation north. There are about 25 whites and 200 Eskimos living here.

We were in Barrow on a Sunday and attended the evening services of the Presbyterian Church. The minister was a white man and his assistant was an Eskimo.

The minister would preach and after each paragraph his assistant would repeat the message in Eskimo. There was a choir each of Eskimo males and females and the singing was excellent. The song books were in the Eskimo language and in English. The Eskimo book was in more of a pamphlet form. Our alphabet was used and the words were Eskimo.

BARROW has a school for the children and they seemed to be a happy lot as we watched them play in the street and in the mud as our children do when our parents are not watching.

During the midnight hours the natives go about the streets carrying on business as we do in the daytime. During our stay in Barrow we did not see a dark night, for during the hours from 10 p.m. until 3 a.m. it was not dark and was light enough to read a newspaper. All through our Alaskan visit we noted such contrasts. Of course they have about two months of almost complete darkness.

There are no roads in this part of Alaska. The airport was five miles from the village of Barrow and the bus that carried us from the airport to the village had tremendous large tires on the wheels so that it could travel the beach through the sand and mud and water. It has driving power on six wheels. The village of Barrow has a combined store and post visiting at Capistrano Beach.

6 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, July 28, 1955—City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington announced at Tuesday's Council meeting at City Hall that some time prior to April 1, 1956, Sierra Madre will begin collecting a city sales tax of 1 per cent.

This tax on retail sales is in addition to the 3 per cent now imposed by the State of California. This action has been forced upon Sierra Madre by the State Legislature which will allow all counties on next April 1 to collect a 1 per cent sales tax. If individual cities do not levy the tax, it can be collected and retained by the county under the Uniform Local State Tax Law enacted by the 1955 State Legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roefer of 647 W. Montecito left recently for an extended motor trip through the United States and Canada. They expect to return to Sierra Madre about Oct. 1.

that brings in supplies and passengers and there were five of us passengers on the plane that came to Barrow that day.

The waste from the village is placed in oil drums (they have a lot of them in Barrow with which to carry oil for heating purposes) and they place the filled drums out on the ice and in the summer the ice moves out and carries the whole cargo out to sea. We were told that their dead are disposed of by placing the corpse in a container on the ice, and it is carried out with other disposal.

There are no growing things in this part of Alaska—just tundra and that can be a moss cover or just plain dirt and rocks. It is a bleak land and not a cheerful outlook for good living. However, there are folks who have lived here for years and seem to like it.

ON THE BEACH of the Arctic Sea are large chunks of ice and ice covered the sea as far as we could see. Two miles out was the Ice Ridge, about 200 feet high and extending as far east and west as we could see.

It is composed of broken up ice chunks of enormous sizes that had been crowded together when the wind blows from the north or south. The villagers told us that if the wind would blow steady from the south or awhile the ice would be blown out and an open sea would result.

The Eskimos hunt seal and other sea creatures and had killed a white whale a few days before we arrived. We could see the whale bones and skull lying on the beach and I got a picture of it. I brought a small piece of whale bone home with us as a souvenir of our Barrow trip.

The Perma Freeze was a thing that interested us and was explained to us as being seven feet down and was a permanent frozen condition of the earth. Any buildings that are erected must have a foundation laid on the Perma Freeze. Holes are drilled or dug seven feet deep and pillars of stone or wood are placed in the holes and the structure is built on the pillars. If this method is not used the structure will settle at different angles and be wrecked.

TO A CERTAIN extent the government feeds the Eskimos and where possible a ship is sent around the coast and food and supplies are dropped off at different periods during the year. The Eskimos do a lot of fishing and hunting seal, whale and walrus and it provides them much food and clothing.

There is a plane each day from Anchorage we flew back to Seattle via Pacific Northern Airlines. Alaska without air service would be badly crippled, for the larger part of its business and commercial life depends on air service.

We took many colored pictures on our trip, but as we did not get many peeks at the sun they may not be so good, but we will have something to put on the screen to remind us of the most interesting trip we had in Alaska.

Farmer McCabe, Bucolic Humorist, Visits, Writes While In Washington, D.C.

Our bucolic tabloid, editorial page humorist, Farmer McCabe, has just returned from a jaunt to Washington, D.C. Some of his passing observations written while in our national capital, will prove both amusing—and though—provoking. He writes as follows:

MET THE MOST beautiful character in this nation's capital the other day. She cares absolutely nothing for herself—instead, she is always doing something for someone else. She's so trusting that she gave a panhandler a half dollar and faithfully waited in vain for him to get it changed and bring back a quarter to her so she would have bus fare home.

She loves everyone so much that she tries to administer to their needs as if they were her own flesh and blood. Well, that's what the Good Book says to do but there are so few of us who really do it.

YOU KNOW, modern appliances have sort of played hob with some of the old time customs. It used to be that a few friends would drop in on Sunday evening to help stir up some homemade ice cream. The men would take turns sitting on the freezer and turning the crank, while the women chatted and busied themselves with the rest of the food.

But that's all gone by the board now. In this appliance age, all we do is to dish up a dab out of the deep freeze, our friends eat and leave. Nobody volunteers to help with the dishes because of the electric dishwasher. To cap it off, unless there's a good TV show on, you're as alone as if you were camping out—Yes sir, times have surely changed.

THERE IS a 40-year-old lady hereabouts who eats little gobs of dirt with her meals, says it keeps her from having indigestion. Just dirt from any place won't do; as a matter of fact, she won't even touch any of the dirt around the Capitol (and you can see her point there). She has to go to a certain hill out near the Potomac River, where she gets a sack of tasty clay which she claims is the tastiest dirt on earth. Now, if any one has a craving to eat a little dirt, than we'll try to find the exact location of this Tasty Clay Hill.

THE AGRICULTURE Committee held the hearing. Frank Wooley, spokesman for the American Farm Bureau, was testifying. He said that crop production payment plan was Communist-supported, whereupon Chairman "Bill" Poague of Texas adjourned the meeting and invited witness Wooley out in the alley where testimony and actions would not be hampered by Congressional Rules of Order. How did it come out? Oh, I don't know—because about that time I had another committee hearing.

JUST HEARD from a lady in California who writes that she has the biggest egg ever laid, and goes on to give its dimensions. It weighed in at five and one-half ounces. Naturally this started us to thinking about eggs and picturing all sizes in our mind's eye—remembering the biggest we've seen.

Come to think about it, I've laid some pretty good sizes eggs myself only they were never weighed, so I don't know just how big they were, though I'm sure some of them were whoppers.

Assemblyman Brown Will Be Judge; L.A. Demo Unruh Slated To Become Speaker

By Edwin Capes

SACRAMENTO—(CNS)—The California Legislature is peculiarly sensitive to change, and particularly every ten years when it is reapportioned according to law, so the 1963 session will no doubt see many changes with perhaps as many as 20 new members. Not all of these, of course, will be the result of reapportionment. Some will be new due to favors paid off by the Administration, a popular pastime with Democrats and Republicans alike.

One of these is expected to be appointment of Speaker Ralph M. Brown, D-Stanislaus, to a newly created appellate judgeship, thereby leaving the office of speaker open.

Successor to Brown is slated to be Assemblyman James W. Unruh, the hard-punching Democrat from Los Angeles, who has been a tower of strength to Governor Edmund G. Brown in the Assembly during the current session. Unruh claims between 50 and 60 votes for the highly coveted post of speaker.

HOWEVER, there appears to be a difficulty in getting Unruh into the office when and if Speaker Brown gets the judgeship appointment. The bill creating the new post does not go into effect until long after the Legislature adjourns, which prohibits the 1961 session from naming a successor.

Despite the fact Unruh claims the votes, anything could happen between now and the 1962 budget session of the Legislature, which is the first normal time the Legislature will meet.

Consequently, the Unruh forces in the Assembly conceived a new and untried idea for placing his name before the Assembly.

This consisted of a resolution, voted 50-19, which would permit the Assembly to elect a new speaker between sessions through notice by the rules committee that the office was vacant, and convening of the body after a 30-days' notice on call of the rules committee.

JUST HOW LEGAL this resolution is hasn't as yet been decided. The Constitution gives authority only to the Governor to call a special session of the Legislature. However, an assembling of the members of the lower house would not technically be a special session, so the resolution may comply with the Constitution.

On the other hand, there is still a question of whether the Assembly itself can call a meeting of the 80 members and perform any legal act. The dates for calling the Legislature together are specific in the Constitution, and there is no provision in the Constitution for either house to call itself together to perform any legal act, such as the passage of a bill.

However, it may be possible for the Assembly under its rules to call itself together to elect a speaker, provided the so-called election is ratified at the next legal session of the Assembly.

BUT THE PRESTIGE, meantime, if this happens, would undoubtedly carry the caucus-elected speaker through the legal election at the ensuing session.

Thus, the move is merely an assurance that whom the members want for speaker now will be the choice next year.

Special 'Fun Day' at Fair For Old Folk

POMONA—Senior citizens of Southern California—or from anywhere—will receive a royal salute from the Los Angeles County Fair in Pomona on their special day, Monday, Sept. 18.

Not only will a price concession be made on admission to the exposition, but there will be many other attractions and events to turn the honored visitors into "kids for a day" at America's largest and most beautiful county fair, Sept. 15 through Oct. 1.

According to General Manager Phil D. Shepherd, all persons 62 years of age or over, whether members of a recognized club or not, will be admitted to the grounds for 50 cents. Registration booths will be maintained at all gates to the fairgrounds. Registry blanks, which will provide information necessary to qualify individuals for the various prizes offered in various classifications, must be signed at time ticket is purchased.

SOCIAL HEADQUARTERS for the various groups will be the Plaza of the States, where hobbies and activities of senior citizens will be displayed. Kansas-born Jennie Bishop, 74-year-old Western fly casting champion, will demonstrate the technique that has won her the title for two consecutive years. Despite being an ardent disciple of fishing all of her life, Mrs. Bishop did not take up casting until she was 63 years old.

Other demonstrations, plus special entertainment and contests, will make it a "fun day" for everyone. Picnic areas are available at no charge and special rates will be given on the elephant train sightseeing tours.

'Triumphant At Last' Is Hesse Topic

Speaking on the seventh chapter of the Book of Daniel in next Sunday's 9 and 10:30 a.m. worship services at Faith Lutheran Church, 835 Hastings Ranch Dr., Rev. Armin Hesse will emphasize the theme "Triumphant at Last!"

This chapter presents a vision given to Daniel in which he saw a vast ocean in a state of turmoil, from which there arose four fantastic figures.

"But far more important than these strange entities in this vision," according to the pastor, "is the revelation of the Ancient of Days upon the throne and of the appearance of the Son of Man. The first four figures instill fear; the latter two hold out hope and confidence and the assurance of victory to Christians."

A SPECIAL MEETING of the communicant membership of the congregation will be held at 7:30 o'clock next Tuesday evening, Aug. 1, to view and discuss Architect Culver Heaton's preliminary plans and elevations of the new church sanctuary. All friends of the congregation also are invited.

Members of the Valparaiso University Guild will meet for a luncheon next Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. in church meeting room. The university, located in Valparaiso, Ind., is associated with the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, and has a number of graduates among the members of Faith Lutheran Church.

Dr. Elwin D. Farwell

New College Head to Talk At Shepherd

Guest pastor at 10:10 a.m. Sunday at Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church, 33 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre, will be Rev. Elwin D. Farwell, dean of the new California Lutheran College at Thousand Oaks.

Dr. Farwell will preach for Rev. Ray E. Hansen, who is attending the Board of American Missions conference at Asilomar, Calif.

BEFORE coming to the new college which will open in September, Dr. Farwell was pastor of Salem Lutheran Church, Andrew, Ia. He was on the faculty at Michigan State eight years, including one year as advisor to the National University of Colombia, South America, and three years on the research staff of the Center for the Study of Higher Education at the University of California.

He received his bachelor and master degrees in science from Michigan State, his doctor of education from the University of California and his bachelor of divinity degree from Pacific Lutheran Seminary, Berkeley, Calif. Sunday School continues through the summer at 9 a.m.

Good Shepherd Will Hear Knox

The congregation of the Church of the Good Shepherd will be privileged to hear their new associate minister, John R. Knox, preaching during the next four Sundays. Rev. Knox has chosen for his theme for the series "The Questions That Jesus Asks Us," based on the questions found in the 4th Gospel.

At the 10 a.m. worship service on Sunday, Mr. Knox is taking his text from the first chapter of John, verses 135 to 146, and the question is, "What Do You Seek?" As a new minister, he will be presenting some of the challenges this position offers to him and some of the thoughts he wants to convey to the congregation. With Margaret Hackett at the organ, the summer choir will sing, under the direction of Roger Bailey.

Dr. Thatcher Jordan, pastor, will be vacationing with Mrs. Jordan and their two boys in Stockton, Calif., where Dr. Jordan has been invited to teach for four weeks at the University of the Pacific Pastors' School.

Congregational Charter Sunday Will Honor Its Thirteen Original Members

Charter Sunday, honoring the 13 men and women who were charter members of the Congregational Church, will be observed at that church this Sunday, July 30.

The church is celebrating its 75th anniversary this year, and Charter Sunday is one in a series of events in that celebration. Original articles of incorporation were granted to the church on July 30, 1886. They will be displayed on this Sunday.

Old pictures, documents and records will also be displayed. Members of the congregation are invited to bring old and unusual Bibles for exhibit. Materials will be open for viewing following the 10 o'clock service on Sunday morning.

Col. Charles R. Gildart Sr., chairman of the Jubilee Committee, and Mrs. Maybelle Barker, church historian, are in charge of the exhibit.

Bethany Notes

ON JULY 19 the congregation of Bethany Church approved the recommendation from the building committee that we enter into a contract with Norman Toombs of Pasadena for construction of a 7,500-square foot Christian Education Building for the Elementary Department in the Bethany Sunday School.

The building will care for about 250 pupils and will enable close grading of pupils in every department.

Donald McDonald, Arcadia, chairman of the building committee, states that negotiations with the subcontractors are taking place and that excavation of the ground in preparation for the foundation will probably begin this week, depending upon the schedule of Fred Richter, excavating contractor, who lives in Sierra Madre.

DR. WALTER L. WILSON, 80-year-old retired minister of Central Bible Church in Kansas City, Mo., spoke at the Wednesday evening prayer meeting at Bethany Church.

Dr. Wilson, former pastor of Dr. Schaper, Bethany's pastor, held special services in Sierra Madre a year ago and many persons remember him from that time.

He just recently retired from the active ministry of Central Church and is now touring the United States as a visiting speaker at church conventions and conferences, and Bethany considers it providential that he was able to be at our Wednesday evening service.

Dr. Schaper returned to his home church in Kansas City in May to speak at a banquet honoring Dr. Wilson on completion of 40 years of successful pastoring of the large congregation, which two years ago divided and formed another church in which the combined congregations total 1,100 active members.

Dr. Wilson is the author of numerous books on evangelism and soul winning and is currently writing a column for "Power," a Sunday School publication published by Scripture Press of Chicago.

THIRTEEN persons from Bethany Church returned last Saturday afternoon from the Forest Home Music Conference for church musicians.

They report an outstand-

Bobbie and Margaret; Christine Schoeck, Susan Obazawa, Randy Young, Nalla Jean Childers, Mrs. Betty Blosser and her children, Frank and Donna; and Carolyn Burwell.

Dr. Schaper ministered from the Word of God to the conference on the general subject, "The Musician as a Minister."

JUNIOR AGE campers at Tahquitz Pines campground near Idyllwild include Nancy White from Monrovia; Margaret Dodge, Karen Tilquist, Vicky Ankeny and two Gates children, all from Sierra Madre. They will return on Saturday.

JIM STEWART and Ron and Joy Taylor, all of Pasadena, returned on Sunday from The Christian Endeavor Sponsor's Seminar, held at Westmont College in Santa Barbara. Jim is sponsor on the High School Senior CE and Ron and Joy Taylor are sponsors of the Junior High CE. All report a profitable time was spent in learning new methods and techniques in sponsoring Christian Endeavor youth societies.

Those attending from Bethany included Dr. Robert N. Schaper, pastor of Bethany, and his wife, Margaret, and their children—Reed,

Swim Pool Attendance Up 8,088

Under direction of Tom Butch, assistant city administrator, the Sierra Vista swim pool during the first 40 days of operation this season shows an attendance of 17,500 compared with 9,412 for the comparable period last year, an increase of 8,088.

Of this number, 9,748 are accounted for through the season family pass instituted by the assistant city administrator.

The average daily attendance this season has been 438, compared to 234 for last year. Revenues received through the family passes total $3,755.

TOTAL REVENUE for the year thus far is $9,536.55 as against $5,236.25, a gain of $4,300.30.

Concession sales have been $1,411.80, compared to $1,039.25 a year ago.

Swim lessons have brought in $2,215.00, compared to $1,657.50 in 1960.

Quick Action by Policeman Here Saves Ranch Man

The life of Clarence Spall of 1420 Riviera, Hastings Ranch, was saved last Friday by quick action of Police Officer C. L. Sanders of the Sierra Madre Department, plus a resuscitator.

While at his home, Spall was stricken with a heart attack. The Spall home is in Pasadena territory but officials there, realizing the value of time in the case, asked for help from the Sierra Madre Department. Officer Sanders and a resuscitator were the answer and shortly afterward Spall was reported out of danger.
